PLANNING YOUR WEDDING WITH GREEN & FORTUNE

First things first, we'd like to start by saying congratulations! You've obviously made some very important decisions, and now we're here to help with the next few to ensure you have a perfect wedding day at one of our stunning venues.

At Green & Fortune, we're all about creating unforgettable moments — and food and drink is where we truly shine.

Our team is full of passionate people who love nothing more than bringing celebrations to life, and your wedding will be no exception. Whether you're planning an intimate gathering or a grand affair, we've got the experience and creativity to make it incredible.

Our chefs have poured love and care into creating wedding menus that are both elegant and exciting, always letting the finest seasonal ingredients take centre stage. Whenever we can, we use meat from our very own Northumberland farm — so yes, that perfectly cooked beef or melt-in-your-mouth lamb on your plate will have come from there. And if you have a vision for something a little different? We're all ears. We'd love to create something that's uniquely yours.

Of course, no celebration is complete without the perfect drinks. We've handpicked wines that we know your guests will adore — or, if you'd like us to source something special to you our sommelier would be delighted to help.

Our dedicated events managers will be by your side every step of the way, guiding you through logistics, helping with the finer details, and recommending trusted florists, musicians, and other talented suppliers.

KINGS PLACE

Modern, Striking, and Unexpectedly Romantic

Tucked away in the heart of the vibrant King's Cross area, this modern gem has been part of London's cultural scene since 2008.

What makes it extra special? It's set right on the edge of Regent's Canal — a beautiful and unexpected touch of calm in the city. As your guests step through the sweeping atrium and catch those waterside views, we promise there'll be more than a few gasps.

If you're dreaming of a ceremony that truly makes a statement, our show-stopping Hall One is licensed for weddings and can seat up to 400 of your nearest and dearest.

That said, smaller weddings feel just as magical — the front rows of this stunning space create an intimate and unforgettable setting to say "I do."

BATTLEBRIDGE ROOM

Bright, beautiful and full of character

It's easy to see why this is our most-loved wedding space. Licensed for ceremonies and perfect for parties, your whole day can unfold in one elegant setting — from "I do" to dinner, to dancing the night away.

Flooded with natural light thanks to its floor-to-ceiling windows, the Battlebridge opens onto a covered terrace that looks out over the tranquil Battlebridge Basin on Regent's Canal — a dreamy, photogenic backdrop for your big day.

Inside, there's a stunning timber floor that's practically made for dancing, a stylish built-in bar, mood lighting you can tailor to your vibe, and large digital screens for sharing special moments or messages from afar.

A wedding here might begin with a heartfelt ceremony in the smaller section of the room, followed by drinks and laughter on the terrace. Later, the space transforms for a delicious seated meal for up to 140 guests. And once dinner's done? Your entertainment is ready and waiting to get the celebration going in the very place you exchanged your vows — a perfect full-circle moment.

ROTUNDA

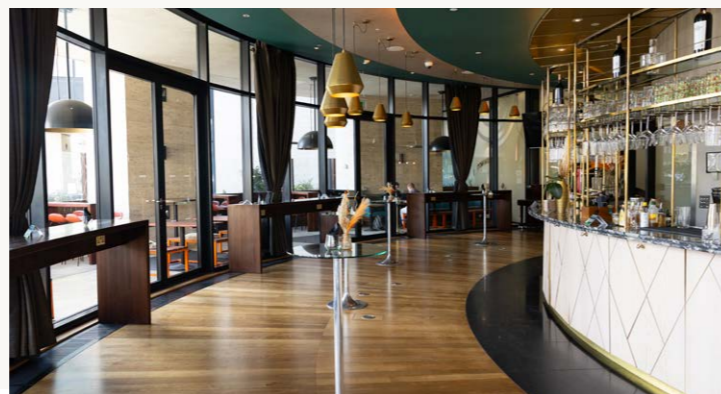

A Hidden Gem by the Water!

Tucked away beside the water, Rotunda is a true hidden gem, the kind of place that feels like a secret escape in the heart of the city.

Just a stone's throw from King's Cross Station, this stylish bar and restaurant boasts incredible views and a spacious waterside terrace set right beside Regent's Canal. It's effortlessly cool, deeply romantic, and filled with charm.

Think golden-hour light glistening on the water, canal boats drifting past in the background, and unforgettable photo opportunities at every turn. It's the perfect spot for couples looking for something relaxed, elegant, and just a little different.

Whether you're planning a small, intimate reception or a lively celebration with all your favourite people, Rotunda has the flexibility to match your vision. Smaller gatherings can enjoy the private dining room — complete with its own slice of the terrace — while larger weddings can take over the entire venue with a full hire and make the space entirely your own.

The restaurant is licensed for wedding ceremonies, or you might choose to tie the knot elsewhere and move to Rotunda for your reception, dinner, and dancing.

Our menus are something special — crafted around beef and lamb from our very own Northumberland farm. From elegant three-course meals and family-style sharing feasts, to barbecue banquets and stylish canapés, every bite is thoughtfully prepared with love and flavour at the heart.

With a full venue hire, Rotunda truly comes to life. The layout is made for flowing between reception, dinner, and dancing, and when the weather plays nice, the terrace becomes the perfect place to toast the future under the open sky.

This is the kind of venue where real memories are made — and we'd be honoured to help you create yours.
